DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the National Intelligencer

REBELLION.

A vast deal has been said and written about the rebellion of the Southern people; much pertinently, much more impertinently. This rebellion is past, it is ended; we let it go. It is of another rebellion, not past, but in progress, of which we propose to speak. It is the rebellion of a political party, which, though backed by their own constituencies, is still in power, against the Constitution and the laws. This is the only sort of rebellion of which the government can take cognizance. The Southern people rebelled only in one particular—they believed in the right of secession, and took up arms in its defence; the Radical party have rebelled in a thousand ways.

The Constitution, article I, section 3, says: "The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof," &c.

The Radical party, in most obvious violation of this clear provision, this imperative "shall," positively and persistently refuses to allow Senators from ten of the States of the Union to enter and take their seats in the Senate chamber. Mark this; it is rebellion.

Again, article III, section 2, "The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury."

At the recital of this just, wise, and beneficent provision of the Constitution, the humane guard of the innocent, the very bulwark of individual liberty, what a flood of violations of it rush upon the mind!—The time comes back when citizens were hunted down at midnight, like assassins and outlaws, dragged from their families and homes by hired ruffians who lived by blood-money, and thrown into loathsome prison houses, without knowing what crimes they had committed or of what they stood charged, to go through, not a trial by jury, as ordained for them by the laws of the land, but the farce of a trial by some sort of an irresponsible and illegal "commission," organized not to try but to convict. It is unnecessary to go into details; it is enough to only hint at what is a long catalogue of dark and sickening horrors, which stains the nation with disgrace, and fixes upon the Radical party that violated civilization and humanity in perpetrating them, the ineffaceable stamp of a deep and burning infamy. Mark this, too; it is not only disgrace and wrong, it is rebellion.

Article III, section 3. "No attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture, except during the life of the person attainted."

Bearing this plain and imperative provision in mind, recur at your leisure to the reckless and lawless confiscations which have already taken place in various parts of the Southern States without a shadow of authority; and remember, further, the sweeping schemes of confiscation contemplated and advocated by Thaddeus Stevens and other leading leaders of the Radical party, by which it is designed to rob the distressed and impoverished whites of the South of all that remains to them—their lands—and give them away, for political purposes and to buy the negro vote, to a brutalized, half civilized race, hardly a step above the sanguinary cannibals of their native African wilds. Mark this, also, it is not crime and persecution alone, it is rebellion.

Article IV, section 3: "No new State shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other State."

On this point it is not necessary to do more than simply refer to the territory known as the "State" of West Virginia, carved out of the State of Virginia, to promote the rebellious schemes of Radicalism, in impudent defiance of the Constitution, which expressly declares that such a thing shall not be done. Mark it; it is rebellion.

Article I of the amendment: "Congress shall make no law * * * abridging the freedom of speech or of the press," &c.

If a Radical Congress have not made laws abridging the freedom of speech and of the press, the Radical party has made precedents, and taught its reckless, turbulent, incendiary followers that in these matters they are a law unto themselves. No one can forget, as no one can enumerate, the many occasions when they have silenced and driven from the stand, if not driven into a dungeon, public speakers who could not as honest men acquiesce in the dogmatic Radical doctrines and policy, and did not share, but contemned and execrated the prevailing fanaticism of the times. Instances of this sort, if not by legal enactment, by the advice, co-operation, and collusion of the Radical party, if the record were looked to for a full recital, are as numerous as fallen leaves in autumn. Only last year was the President of the United States himself, in the person of Andrew Johnson, when on his journey Westward to attend the laying of the foundation-stone of a monument to perpetuate the memory of a dead statesman, at Indianapolis, when addressing his fellow-citizens, silenced, forced by the disciples and teachings of Radicalism to leave the platform, and retire to his hotel; and this not without a free use of bludgeons and bullets, endangering, if not designing, the life of the President, and killing others of the assembled multitude.

And turning to the press, who has forgotten the suppression of newspapers in all parts of the country? Who does not remember, as conspicuous examples, the suppression of the New York World and New York Journal of Commerce, and their editors arrested and lodged, or ordered to be lodged, in Fort Lafayette? And for what were they suppressed? For not bending to the lawless will of loose and visionary despots, for questioning the right of the majority to do certain things, for expressing their own political opinions as they had an undoubted right to do, for giving warning to the citizens when their institutions were seen to be endangered, and for defending and inculcating defence of the Constitution and the laws. Mark all this—this silencing of free speech and suppression of a free press; it is rebellion.

Article II of the amendment: "A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

How many "well regulated militia" are now to be found in ten of the Southern States of this Union, though the Constitution declares that such militia is "necessary to the security of a free State," and provides "that the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed?" How many of the Southern white people possess arms, or are allowed to possess them? This becomes just now a practical question, in view of the possible, if not probable, uprising of the negroes, under radical tuition, if not instigation, against their former masters and their best friends; and should such an uprising take place, the whites unarmed, and the blacks, as common report declares, armed very generally, what is to prevent the white people being exterminated?—This wise provision of the Constitution, as that instrument itself states, is a "necessity" as a "security." "The militia," says Chief Justice Story, "is the natural defence of a free country against sudden foreign invasions, domestic insurrections and domestic usurpations of power by rulers." But the Radical party, as a part of their scheme of revolution, have done away with the State militia, so wisely ordained by the framers of the Constitution, and substituted for it a regular standing army, in order more easily and fully to carry out their own bad designs. And here on this point permit us to quote again from the same eminent jurist, Chief Justice Story, who says: "One of the ordinary modes by which tyrants accomplish their purposes is, by disarming the people, and making it an offence to keep arms, and by substituting a regular army in the stead of the militia." Mark this destruction of the Southern militia, and the presence of a standing army in time of peace; it is rebellion.

Articles III., IV., V., and VI. of the amendment have all been repeatedly and flagrantly violated. Soldiers have been "quartered" in many houses in time of peace, contrary to the third article; "the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures," has been "violated," contrary to the fourth article; hundreds of persons have been "held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime," without "a presentment or indictment of a grand jury," who were not "in the land or naval forces;" and thousands have been "deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law," in violation of the fifth article. The sixth article, which declares it to be the "right" of every accused person to a "speedy and public trial by an impartial jury," and "to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation against him," has been treated with contempt and derision over and over again—violated and defied. Let all this be not forgotten; for the lesson that it teaches, let it be remembered well, let it be marked well; it is rebellion.

Thus we find almost every article of our great governing law, the Constitution, has been shamefully violated and outraged.—We have had to be very brief. We could go on, ad infinitum, giving illustrations showing the revolutionary and rebellious nature of the Radical party. But we trust we have said and shown enough to convince the candid mind that Radicalism has lived, and ruled, and destroyed too long, and that it is for the best interests of the country, North and South, that it should be forced to drop the reins of power, and frowned into retirement.

Valuable Property For Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF A DEED OF TRUST executed to me, by the late Wm. F. Collins, I will sell, on Monday, the 19th day of January, 1868, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Warrenton, the following valuable property:

The Tract of Land on which the late Wm. F. Collins resided, at the time of his death, situated in Warren County, on the Williamsboro' Road, two (2) miles from Ridgeway Depot, on the R. & G. R. R., and adjoining the lands of Jno. E. Jones, B. M. Collins and others, containing

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO (172) ACRES.

On this Tract are situated the celebrated RIDGEWAY MILLS, which are not surpassed in the manufacture of Flour by any in the State. The Mills are in first-rate running order.

There are on the premises a Dwelling House, the necessary out-houses, barns, stables, &c., for conducting a farm. The land is under good fences and in a high state of cultivation, about one-half the tract being in original woods, convenient to the House and Mill.

There is also a fine young Orchard of Apple and Peach trees, well selected, and several young vines of the Scuppernong Grape.

Persons wishing to purchase would do well to examine the property before the sale.

Terms made known on day of sale.

MARY COLLINS, Trustee.

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,
PETERSBURG AND WELDON,
RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA,
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "Via PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

LABOR AND EQUALITY.

Radical visionaries dwell much, in their speeches, upon the great prosperity of the South, when it shall become Radicalized and Africanized, because of the dignity of labor, and the removal of those distinctions of color, which have hitherto, as they profess to believe, interrupted and hindered progress. They close their eyes to the injurious effects of their teachings upon the negro, and the universal fact, that in all countries, not more than one fifth or one tenth of the population ever become permanent owners of the soil, and that the balance of the population must become in some form the employed laborers. The white race, trained to labor and knowing its power, are always content to be employed, until they are capable or able to become proprietors. In this way the interests of employer and employee become identical, and they become a help to each other, and the skilled and industrious laborer is stimulated to work, expecting at some day to become an owner and an employer.

Had the Congress and the Radical party, after the slaves of the South had been made free, left them to be controlled by those plain rules which regulate labor, and had they thrown no impediment in the way of the operation of those feelings of kindness and forbearance which had grown up between the races, and which would have been strengthened at once by the enactment of the necessary State laws, which would have given ample protection to the freedmen, the condition of the freedmen would have been vastly better than it is now, and a system of labor inaugurated, which would have resulted in permanent and speedy prosperity to both races.

The result, however, is, that while the Freedmen's Bureau may have relieved the wants of some, and the educational schemes of the Radicals taught the negroes letters to some extent, both institutions, connected with the demoralizing teachings which have been spread broadcast among the negroes, have been positive evils to both races in the South, and have sown a crop of bad views, bad principles and bad hopes among the blacks, from which both races may reap a harvest of ruin, for years to come.

The Utopian idea that four millions of half civilized, semi-barbarous people could be made a nation of independent, self governing citizens in a day—that Yankee energy and ingenuity could, by their educational and political schemes, aided by the sword, make such a people the equals of the white race in all respects in a few short months,—and that the only thing needful was to keep down the whites from injuring the poor blacks, exceeds in madness and folly any scheme ever before inaugurated.

What has been the effect of all this Congressional legislation and Yankee teaching? Why, it is simply this: that the negro, understanding that he is a freeman and the equal of the white man, conceives that he cannot be free, if he is obliged to work under an employer—that in order to be free, he must work his own land, plow his own mule, and, if he lacks food or clothing, he must go to the Bureau and get them; that if he is free, he must keep his own shop or be master of the premises he occupies. The idea of working as an employee, as a laborer for others on wages, does not come up at all to the negro idea of freedom. This very thing, they know, many of them were allowed to do when they were slaves,—the only difference being that they had to pay part of their earnings to their owners. But then, in many cases, the owner supported their wives and children. Their idea is, and it is almost ineradicable, that a man cannot be free, until he has arrived at that point when he can work or not work, not as a necessity, but as a matter of choice, as he pleases.—But their idea of equality with the white man goes much further. They reason, "if I am an equal of the white man, I ought of course to own houses and lands, and horses and cattle, like the white man." It matters not how many white men around them are poor like themselves, so long as they see their former owners in possession of any thing which, perhaps, their labor may have had the smallest part in procuring, they think they cannot be equal, until they possess it too—that they must be equal in position, in office, ride in the same coach, eat at the same table, drink from the same glass, with white men, and that the government is bound to confer these things upon them, as a matter of right and justice.

This is the kind of education they have received from the teachings of their Yankee friends. What is the effect? Labor is so demoralized, is so little under the control of actual employers, and has become so unreliable, that thousands of persons despairing of any favorable change will not employ negroes. And it is all the necessary result of Radical teachings, to bring them under the complete control of their party. If Radicals alone could be the sufferers, then we might be content, but the whole South suffers, and the entire nation must suffer, from this mandlin philanthropy and demagogical trickery. Under such teachings, the South never can recuperate, never can recover from her prostration, and never can be otherwise than a burden to the government.

JEBU.—The citizens of Raleigh feel some interest in the Hon. John Baker, since they were sold so effectually in Tucker Hall.—They may possibly like, therefore, to know how he voted on impeachment. Well, our John voted nay.

INGRATITUDE.

Whether viewed nationally or personally, ingratitude has been always regarded as the most despicable of moral deformities. The most disparaging charge that has been brought against the virtue of Republics, is that they are "ungrateful,"—that it inheres to their character to overlook eminent services, after the benefits which they may have rendered have passed into history, and buy imperiously toreward the labors of those who have done most to build up the National reputation and renown. There is, unfortunately, good ground for the imputation.

The vice, in its individual, social and domestic application and aspects, has been illustrated by the pen of satirists and moralists in all ages. Old King Lear, driven out by his unfilial offspring, with his hoary head and aged frame exposed to the pitiless peltings of the storm, afforded the great dramatist an opportunity of painting a scene that has since been employed whenever the hideousness of ingratitude was to be most signally illustrated.

"Oh! sharper than a serpent's tooth
It is, to have a thankless child!"

Our modern annals afford some remarkable instances of ingratitude, which, though not so touching and affecting as that exhibited in the cases of Lear or of Cardinal Wolsey,—which, in fact, though rather of the ludicrous order in themselves,—still serve "to point a moral and adorn a tale," and to show that human nature has not improved under the Radical process of enlightenment.

We recall four memorable examples:

The former Provisional "Governor" of North Carolina, who owed his investiture with the factitious title and his assumption of the "brief authority" which the office gave him, to the misplaced confidence of President Johnson, has advocated the impeachment of his benefactor,—the chief count in the indictment being that he set up these very Provisional persons and made "sort o' Governors" out of them.

Pope's Convention in Alabama, most of the members of which owe their possession of place and appropriation of $8 per diem to the manner in which he ran the registration machine, turned upon that great man and illustrious brave with something like savagery, because he dared to intimate that his creatures were going it a little too strong for the interests of the "party."

Sheridan, Stanton and Sickles, after having labored, in season and out of season, to promote the ends of the same "party," and of Reconstruction on a Radical basis, are no sooner removed from office, than their names die out on the lips of their erewhile enthusiastic eulogists and admirers, and they are forgotten.

And, lastly: It is well known that here, in our own goodly city, the number of white Radicals is hardly in excess of fifty, while the sable disciples have registered some twelve hundred or more. Without them, the "party" would be so insignificant in all respects that the most powerful microscope couldn't discern it. And yet, in apportioning municipal distinctions, the negroes are only permitted to hope for three out of eleven honors!

BANKRUPT ADVERTISING.—The Old North State devotes nearly three columns of its last issue to the Standard and Judge Brooks, in ventilating the question whether or not the Bankrupt advertising must, in all cases, be given to the Standard and Asheville Pioneer. The subject, we understand, was brought before Judge Brooks, at the present term, and was ably argued by Mr. Boyden and Judge Merrimon against the exclusive claim of those two papers.

The law indisputably confers upon the Clerk of the House of Representatives the power to publish the U. S. laws in such papers as he may select. He having selected those two papers, there can be no question upon that point. But that the law gives those two papers the right to claim the advertising of the military orders, &c., or the Bankrupt advertising, we do not for a moment believe. The military advertising, we presume, is certainly subject to the order of the Military Commandant of the District, and the Bankrupt advertising to the Court which makes the order in bankruptcy. By courtesy, heretofore, the Courts have left the advertising to the Attornies in each case, and we can see no good reason why Judge Brooks should not, in this case, leave the matter to the option of the Attorney of the client. If it be important that the Register in Bankruptcy should notify all the parties concerned in each application for the benefits of the law, it is plain that that newspaper should be selected for the purpose, which would most likely spread the information. The circulation of the Standard and Pioneer does not reach many persons, and, therefore, it is a plain matter of justice and propriety, that the advertising should be divided amoag the papers of the State.

MR. DOOLITTLE'S AMENDMENT.—The telegram furnished us, on yesterday, an abstract of this gentleman's proposed amendment to the Reconstruction Acts, which embraces the idea of qualified negro suffrage. It will probably be defeated, but we are glad that Senator Doolittle has brought the Radicals to the "sticking point." It will help on the great reaction. Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, echoed the sentiment of the country, when he declared, in his place in the Senate, on Monday, that "this was a white man's government and ever would be. The freemen of this country will never consent to have a President forced on them by negro electoral votes."

A NUMBER of negroes, with others, will soon be engaged, in this City, in forming a Constitution for the old State of North Carolina. In New York, Ohio, and other Northern and Western States, these very men, thus engaged, would not be allowed even to vote!

In the course of debate in Congress, last Saturday, Thad. Stevens stated that "new States would be coming in from week to week for the next ten weeks." Whatever that may mean.

RECONSTRUCTION.

The intimation, come from what source it may, that the Conservative people of this State are opposed to the restoration of harmony and peace between the sections of the Union, is false—basely false. There is nothing that Conservative men so much desire as the restoration of the Constitution and the Union—the return of complete concord and peace between the two sections.—It was this desire that led to the universal acquiescence of our people in the surrender of our armies, and their readiness to make the sacrifices required of the South in the Johnson policy.

Why do they ignore and object to the Radical policy? Is it because they are opposed to a settlement of our difficulties?—Are they disloyal to the government or untrue to the Union? By no means.

They object, because that policy is opposed to Union,

Because it is unconstitutional and thereby destructive of Union.

Because it ignores the old government, and the old principles of the Constitution.

Because it violates nature and the laws of God.

Because it arrays race against race.

Because it makes the government and its prosperity subservient to a party.

Because it is the means of keeping a corrupt party in power.

Because it is unjust, inhuman and vindictive, conceived in iniquity and born in sin.

Because its success will ever serve as a reminder to the Southern people of the injustice, vindictiveness and cruel hatred of the Radical party to the South, creating in turn a hatred which can never be extinguished in the bosoms of its victims.

THE REACTION.

The tone of the Northern municipal elections is decidedly healthy and hopeful. Old Boston fired the first gun, electing a Democratic Mayor, for the first time in twenty years. Newburyport, Mass., followed suit, and now Pittsburg, Pa., gives 3,000 majority against the regular Radical nominees, followed by a Democratic Mayor in Manchester, N. H.

These are but pop-guns, to the thundering of the Conservative cohorts throughout the entire North, when they come again to the ballot. We hope that every free election, which may be held throughout the country, will strike terror and utter confusion into the ranks of the Radicals. Surely, surely, there is a better day coming, when truth and right, and the Constitution and the Union, shall triumph over the spirit of disunion, confusion, negroism and Radicalism.

OLD VIRGINIA AROUSED.

We call attention to the telegraphic accounts of the meeting on yesterday, in Richmond, of the Conservative State Convention. Eight hundred delegates were present at the organization, composed of the best blood and the truest men in the Old Dominion. These are the sons of those noble sires who lived in better, purer days, who revered the Constitution and the laws and loved the Union. Their sons stand upon the same platform, and their voices will be heard.

We urge upon North Carolina Conservatives, from every County, to be ready, at a moment's warning, to attend to the call of the Executive State Committee to meet in Convention in this State. Let them come from, Currituck to Cherokee. Let the first and best men of the State rally and be on hand at that time.

A NEGRO delegate, in the Virginia Convention, advocating the "$3 per day," closed with the following knock-down argument:

"It might be that some of the members were not worth more than $3 per day. It was worth more to sleep from home, to leave your wife, than to stay at home. If you don't pay a man a fair price for services, you will force him to steal."

That fellow had an eye to all the chances, certain.

THE NATIONAL Intelligencer, speaking of the fifty-seven members of Congress who voted for the impeachment of the President, says:

"The time is not far distant when the men who have thus deliberately gibbetted their names, followed by the scorpion lash of popular scorn, will cry in their agony for the mountains to fall and the rocks to hide them from the odium they have incurred."

On Monday night last, as Mr. Patrick Curtis, of Petersburg, Va., went to his stable to find his horse, he was seized by a negro man named Shadrack Adams and shot through the neck by a pistol shot, which passed to the rear of the neck. The negro was arrested and identified and will be tried. His object was to rob Mr. C.—Mr. C. is likely to recover to witness against him.

SPEECH ON THE IMPEACHMENT QUESTION.—When the vote was taken on the impeachment question a number of the members had on hand, unspoken, carefully and elaborately prepared speeches on the subject. An opportunity, however, will be hereafter afforded to deliver them in Committee of the whole on the state of the Union, though they will be somewhat out of date.

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.—The members of the Alabama Convention, says the Mobile Advertiser and Register, have really voted to take $50,000 from the true people of Alabama to pay them $8 a day, and $8 for every twenty miles of travel, for their valuable services in overturning their Government, disfranchising them at the polls, and depriving them of all voice and influence in their own political affairs.

GENUINE WIT.—A distinguished Southern lady, who is the wife of a prominent and extreme Radical, residing in one of the Northern States, while engaged in plucking the grey hairs from her husband's moustache, was asked by him, "What are you doing, my dear?" "Only carrying out your own policy, sir; exterminating the whites for the benefit of the blacks," was the witty reply.—Nat. Intel.

THE CASE OF SECRETARY STANTON.—It is the belief of a prominent Radical Senator that the case of ex-Secretary Stanton will be untouched by the Senate—that at least nothing will be done looking towards his restoration to the position he was requested to vacate.

Gen. S. G. Burbridge appears to be the choice of the Radical members of the Senate for appointment to the position of Sergeant-at-arms. Some time ago he was working in a sawmill in Tennessee.

STATE ITEMS.

—HORRIBLE MURDER IN JONES COUNTY.—COL. JNO. H. NETHERCUTT AND HIS WIFE MURDERED IN THEIR OWN HOUSE.—Jones County has been the scene of more lawlessness and crime, within the past twelve months, than any other portion of the South. Cannot the military authorities do something to remedy this awful state of affairs? As the Journal of Commerce remarks, "it seems that appointed civil officers cannot or will not."

The last Newbern papers contain accounts of the horrible murder of Col. Nethercutt, well-known as the Commanding officer of a Battalion during the late war, and the probable murder of his wife, also, at their residence in Jones County, on Sunday night, by a party of armed negroes, five in number. The brutal savages are still at large. It is a fact, evidenced by what we see and hear every day, and by the recently published report of Gen. Canby, that a vast excess of the crime committed in the State is the work of negroes.

We compile the following account of the horrible occurrence from the Republican:

"On Sunday night, while Col. Nethercutt and his family were seated around the fire in the sitting room, some persons entered the house, and before Mr. Nethercutt, who was facing the fire place, could turn, some one discharged a musket, almost instantly killing Mr. N., the ball passing through his chest.

The murderers, who are reported to be five colored men, then attacked Mrs. Nethercutt by striking her upon the head with a chair. Report says that Mrs. Nethercutt's skull was broken by the blow and that she cannot survive. The murderers then proceeded to lock the children of the family in the smoke house next to the dwelling, and ransacked and robbed the house. During the night the children made their escape from the smoke house and gave the alarm to the neighbors.

Word was at once sent to Trenton and Newbern and parties were started to ferret out the murderers or pursue them. Major Van Horn, the commandant of this post, at once sent a detachment or troops under command of Lt. Fletcher to the scene of the outrage.

Sheriff Colgrove, of Jones County, is also in pursuit.

This horrible murder has caused great excitement and gloom throughout the counties bordering on the scene of the tragedy, and the opinion is universal that the most energetic steps should be taken to punish the fiendish murderers. No steps, labors or money ought to be spared in the effort to bring these out-laws to justice and it is to be hoped that rewards will be offered to aid in bringing them to light.

Col. Nethercutt was a gentleman of middle age, who had served his County as Sheriff before the war and held a position as Major and afterwards as Colonel in the Confederate service. Many conflicting rumors were in circulation as to the probable motive of the murderers, but there can be no doubt, if the above report be a true one, that robbery was their object."

Later reports say that Mrs. Nethercutt died, on Monday, of her injuries.

The Journal of Commerce says:

"We have known Col. Nethercutt, for a long time, and know him to have been one of the most inoffensive men living, and the only thing that these fiends in human shape could have murdered him for, was plunder, and his having taken an active part in the "Rebellion."

—A large and intelligent meeting of the Conservatives of New Hanover was held in Wilmington, on Monday night. Eloquent and stirring addresses were made by Hon. S. J. Person, Cols Robert Strange and W. S. Devane, Jno. L. Holmes, G. J. McRee and S. A. Ashe, Esqrs. The Journal speaks in high terms of the efforts of all these gentlemen and of the happy and enthusiastic spirit of the occasion. The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The organization of a Conservative party in North Carolina is a necessity; therefore

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint an Executive Committee for New Hanover county, consisting of one member from each district, and seven from the county at large.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint twenty-five delegates to represent this county in the Conservative Convention for the State to be held in Raleigh.

—D. K. Kornegay and D. A. Thompson, of Wayne, through the Goldsboro News, challenge Duplin and the adjoining Counties for a fox hunt, Christmas week,—to run a pack of seven dogs for speed, bottom and nose! What next?

—A white man named Foster, and a negro, drove into Windsor, Bertie Co., some days ago, and proposed to a gentleman, who happened to be the Sheriff of the County, to sell the horse. The Sheriff suspecting foul play, after getting the negro and white man separated, found out the horse was stolen from a Mr. Jewett, of Chuckatuck, Va. The parties were arrested and Mr. J. written to, who soon appeared and proved his property.

—An old lady, Mrs. Brown, died in Salem last week, one hundred years of age.

—The people of Chowan County, at a recent Conservative meeting, held in Edenton, (the proceedings of which we will publish to-morrow,) have proposed a Convention of delegates from the different Counties of that District, to devise some plan to encourage immigration to that section. They despair of obtaining sufficient labor from the freedmen and will endeavor to obtain foreign labor. The best lands of the State are in that section, which will be rendered partially profitless for the want of efficient, reliable labor.

—The Edenton Transcript is urging strongly the construction of a Rail Road from that place to Norfolk.

The mention of the Bureau suggests a fact which has come within our observation. It has often been said, that Free-loveism, Fourierism, Mormonism, Spiritualism, and no other ism could find a lodgment at the South. However, owing to the easy, careless, indolent nature of the Southern people, there was danger that Universalism or the doctrine of universal salvation should take root among us. But since the introduction of the Blessed Bureau, there is not a man, woman or child at the South, who does not regard the doctrine as a monstrous absurdity. The Bureau has demonstrated to every thinking mind the necessity for future punishment.—Land We Love.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 300 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular Saw, run by a Jouvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed.—There is also a tram road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary outhouses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.

The water on the place is excellent, and it is one of the healthiest locations in the low country.

TERMS OF SALE:

One hundred and fifty dollars cash; four thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the 4th Monday in March, 1868, and notes at six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest. For the balance, bonds with approved security will be required, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid. Possession given on the first day of February, 1868.

HOME CERTIFICATES

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and Patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOLLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee, and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer or fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Consumption, in its Early Stage, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the exasperated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Soon she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an invitereate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country, have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any benefit. In December 1866, being in Charleston, S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad blister by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles, but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Denham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—For rent, the ensuing year, the store now occupied by Phil. Thiem, and two rooms on the second floor, with a kitchen in rear. Apply to R. H. Battle, Esq.

The attention of the public is directed to the advertisement of A. H. McNair, Esq., of Tarboro', offering a valuable Dwelling House and lot in that town for sale; also a good office, an interest in a well established Drug Store, &c.

Bradley & Christophers, at Simpson's old and well-known stand, announce a superb lot of Confectionery, Christmas notions, Groceries, &c., &c. They are also prepared to furnish the most splendid varieties of cakes for weddings, parties &c. Give these young gentlemen a call, and, in the language of "Creech," they will "serve you right."—Their assortment is large and well selected.

Everard Hall, Esq., offers for sale the valuable house and lot on Hillsboro' Street, at which he formerly resided. Also the plantation on which he at present lives, 12 miles South of Raleigh. Both highly valuable. See advertisement.

Improved and Perfected Common Sense Family Sewing Machines, only $20; W. H. Crow, at the office of the Ætna Life Insurance Co., over Tucker's Iron-front Store, is the sole Agent for North Carolina. This instrument is one of the necessities of the age.

CHANGES OF THE MILITARY.—Gen. Canby has just issued an order, making important changes in the military posts of this State. The order, we presume, is made in conformity with the purpose of Gen. Grant to reduce the expenses of the War Department and to "muster out" all who are not needed. Such an arrangement will meet the universal approval of the public.

The order divides the State into four posts, instead of eleven, thus:

Post of Wilmington, Col. R. P. Frank, Commanding, will embrace the counties of New Hanover, Brunswick, Bladen and Columbus.

Post of Raleigh, Col. J. V. Bomford, Commanding, embraces 32 Counties, viz: Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnston, Harnett, Cumberland, Robeson, Richmond, Moore, Chatham, Orange, Granville, Caswell, Alamance, Person, Rockingham, Guilford, Randolph, Montgomery, Anson, Union, Stanly, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Iredell, Rowan, Davie, Davidson, Surry, Stokes, Forsythe and Yadkin. The continuance of Col. Bomford in this command will be gratifying to all parties.

Post of Goldsboro', Col. and Brevet Major General N. A. Miles, Commanding, embracing 28 Counties, viz: Halifax, Northampton, Nash, Wilson, Wayne, Sampson, Duplin, Lenoir, Onslow, Jones, Carteret, Craven, Pitt, Beaufort, Hyde, Martin, Bertie, Hertford, Washington, Tyrrell, Chowan, Perquimans, Gates, Pasquotank, Camden, Currituck, Greene and Edgecombe. Gen. Miles, we hope, will be able to arrest and put a stop to the murderous acts transpiring in Jones and other Counties which require military interference.

Post of Morganton, Col. W. B. Royall, Commanding, embracing the counties of Cherokee, Clay, Macon, Jackson, Haywood, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Yancey, Mitchell, McDowell, Rutherford, Polk, Cleaveland, Burke, Watauga, Caldwell, Catawba, Lincoln, Gaston, Alexander, Wilkes, Ashe, Henderson and Alleghany.

Col. Gould remains in charge of Fort Macon.

THESPIANS.—The young gentlemen comprising the Thespian Association have new and popular plays in course of preparation, and will bring out something sparkling and attractive for the public about the Christmas Holydays. Their recent representations but whetted the popular appetite for something further,—better it could not well be.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—A bold attempt was made by a negro to enter and rob the Saddlery and Harness establishment of C. W. D. Hutchings, Esq., under the Masonic Hall, on Tuesday night. Just as he was about effecting an entrance, he was discovered by another negro, living upon the premises of T. McGee, Esq., who hailed him and demanded his purpose. The thief replied by warning the man not to approach him. Upon his continuing to do so, however, the rascal discharged two shots from a pistol at him, and then made his escape by running. Fortunately, neither of the shots took effect.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to receive a visit, on yesterday, from Rev. Dr. Deems, who pays the city a flying visit. The Dr. is laboring with great usefulness at the Church of the Strangers, in New York.

GIVE CREDIT.—Some of our cotemporaries are not as prompt as they should be in giving due credit to other journals for matter selected from them. We sometimes omit this, but in EVERY case it is merely an oversight or forgetfulness. Among several of our cotemporaries, we have special complaint against our neighbor, the Register, for frequent omissions to give due credit to the Sentinel. In every case it may have been entirely an oversight.

THE MUNICIPAL FIASCO.—We learn that neither Mr. Lougee nor Mr. Hasselbach will allow their names to be used in connection with the ticket named for municipal officers, by the negro meeting, in this City, on Monday evening. This is as we expected. We felt sure that both of these gentlemen would scorn the whole proceeding.

We regard the entire affair as an outrage and an insult to the community. If the movement is persisted in, it will become necessary to ventilate the claims of some of the white aspirants, for the information of the military authorities.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—The Special Term of this Court commenced on yesterday,—his Honor, Judge Barnes, presiding.

GOV. WORTH is at present in Washington. He had an interview with the President on Monday.

From the New York World.

END OF THE IMPEACHMENT FIASCO.

If the Republican party had only made itself the jest and scorn of mankind, that is an evil which could be cheerfully borne.—But unfortunately that party is in possession of the Government, and the reputation of the country suffers by its absurd and degrading antics. What will foreign nations think of the dignity of a government which has been managed for the last eleven months on the hypothesis that its Chief Executive was an uncondemned, merely because he was an untried criminal, and is at last driven to confess that there is no evidence to warrant such treatment?

The abandonment of this preposterous proceeding is extorted from Republican fears. Adverse elections have frightened the party from a course it was bent on pursuing. While the elections were pending, the impeachment toesin was vigorously sounded by their most noted stump orators. Speaker Colfax, whose official position should have taught him decency, courted popularity in the West by menaces that the heels of the President should dangle in the air. Senator Conkling, who presided over the Republican nominating Convention in this State, spread himself, in his opening speech, on the same subject, but with more logic and decorum. We select these two for particular mention, because they are ardent popularity hunters, and it is the instinct of popularity hunters to study the humor of the multitude and say what the multitude applaud. Their utterances prove that before the Republican party was so beaten in the elections, and when it had no apprehension of its doom, impeachment was one of their favorite measures. "How art thou fallen from Heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning!" The breath of the people has passed over the Republican party, and this project lies stiff and cold as Sennacherib's army. To the disgrace of meditated injustice the party has added that of cowardice.

"Curses, like chickens, come home to roost." The Republican party, in failing to impeach the President, has impeached itself. All its proceedings for the last eleven months have gone on the assumption that the President was guilty; and his triumphant acquittal convicts Congress of wanton violations of his rights.

GEN. HANCOCK'S PRESENCE.—The effect of Gen. Hancock's presence as commander of the Fifth Military District is already felt on every hand. It is diffused as a pervading influence. It permeates official precincts, penetrates the avenues of business, and spreads an unusual glow of hope and cheerfulness in social and domestic circles. Our people realize, in short, a sense of reassurance which has been utterly foreign to their experience since the beginning of the Iliad of Southern woes comprised in the various phases of "reconstruction." Before Gen. Hancock arrived and began to develop his policy, the horizon was a leaden hue. It was supremely dreadful even to the eyes of hope. To day was beset with troubles night came, and did not bring us even the poor solace of happy delusive dreams; and to-morrow, with its anticipation of new burdens and perplexities, was a menace which no courage could despise, and an incubus which no energy could throw off.—But one man's advent upon the scene has produced a wondrous change. Men breathe more freely. An insupportable sense of uncertainty and insecurity does not fill their days with anxious thoughts and rob their nights of calm repose. Energy and enterprise begin to stir and break the chains of despair or of apathy. The coming day shines as a beneficent promise, and the thought of it no longer vexes and oppresses.

Yet, in working this remarkable change, Gen. Hancock has done no more than to act, in his extraordinary position, as becomes an honest, straightforward, sensible gentleman and soldier, imbued with the sentiments of a genuine patriotism, and guided by the views of a comprehensive statesmanship.—N. O. Crescent.

THE MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR AT THE RESIDENCE OF MR. J. S. MOON.—The mysterious gentleman has made no demonstrations for the past few days at the residence of Mr. Moon. He doubtless needs rest, and is perhaps sick.—Scottsville Register.

The kid glove dealers in Boston are said to have sold $16,000 worth of "kids" to the audiences of Mr. Dickens, who has finished his readings in that city, and is now in New York.

Fancy has been struck as dumb as an oyster by the failure of the impeachment project. In the Chronicle he says not one word on the subject, but devotes his time to "writing up" Gen. Grant as a Republican nominee for President.

The leading Radicals in Congress are dubious of the Virginia Convention, and consider it necessary to look after it. Wilson, Farnsworth and Henderson are daily expected in Richmond.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11, P. M.

Senate.—A petition from an immense number of naturalized citizens, complaining of grievance and asking that their rights be defined by law, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Anthony introduced a bill, declaring null the confiscation and forfeiture acts passed by the "rebel" Legislatures. Referred.

Mr. Sherman introduced a bill, providing that all balances from captured or abandoned property be put into the Treasury and not drawn thence without authority of law. Mr. Sherman stated that the amount reached several millions.

A discussion ensued, during which McCulloch was charged with illegally disposing of several hundred thousands.

The bill was postponed.

Mr. Sumner presented a resolution from Gen. Brisbin, and 30,000 Kentucky negroes, containing allegations, which Mr. Davis pronounced foul and mendacious libels. The memorial was reserred.

House.—Several members made personal explanations on their votes in favor of impeachment, in which the President was roundly abused.

The Judiciary Committee reported back the bill in relation to the government of the "rebel" States, and it was referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

The committee on Military Affairs reported adversely to paying the army weekly.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11, P. M.

The Southern Railroad Committee's testimony is voluminous. Among other things, it shows that the Roads were freely used by the Confederates, without protest or objection on the part of the Presidents.

A letter from Gen. Grant to the Chairman states that the total appraised value sold was $1,456,000. Total payments to November 1st $3,439,000.

The earthquake at St. Thomas Tortola and St. Croix, began on the 18th of November, and continued until the 20th. The destruction of lives and property was universal.

The Steamer De Soto was washed ashore into the harbor, bottom upwards. Her officers and crew were saved.

The Steamer Missouri was thrown into the town of Middleton, St. Croix, and broken to pieces.

VIRGINIA CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Dec. 11, P. M.

The Conservative Convention assembled in the Theatre, this morning. Eight hundred delegates were present, representing all parts of the State. Hon. A. H. H. Stuart, of Augusta County, was elected President.

In his speech he said, that "this was not a convention of a party, but of Virginians. At the close of the war, they were assured that, upon the repeal of the ordinance of secession, the repudiation of the Confederate debt, and the emancipation of the slaves, we would be restored to the Union. Instead of these promises being fulfilled, a policy has been inaugurated to place the Southern States under the control of an inferior race. We meet to appeal to the North not to permit the infliction of this disgrace upon us. Our rights may be wrested from us, but we will never agree to the rule of an alien and inferior race. We prefer the rule of the bayonet."

Among the Vice-Presidents are Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, Hon. Thos. G. Bocock, Ex-Gov. Letcher and others.

FROM ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Dec. 11, P. M.

Gov. Patton has perfected financial arrangements in New York for paying the interest on the foreign debt, due January 1st, 1868, and has secured an extension of time for the payment of the temporary loan heretofore negotiated in New York.

Messrs. Henry C. Semple, Joseph H. Speed, and eleven other conservative Republican members of the Reconstruction Convention, who protested against the Constitution, ably vindicate their position. They assume that the action of the Convention is in opposition to the sentiment of the Northern people, as expressed in the recent elections, and that the Constitution adopted violates the conditions of the formation of the Republican party in Alabama, by transcending the requirements of the Reconstruction Acts, and adding features of proscription and disfranchisement not authorized by those measures.

They believe the Northern people will not permit the power of their government to be directed to the abasement and degradation of the white people of the South; that they will not sentence the white race of the South to be the servants of their former slaves, even as a punishment for rebellion. They argue that the civil liberty of the Northern people will be endangered by the continued exercise of proconsular rule maintained by force over an impoverished and ruined people. The South admits the thoroughness of the conquest, but trusts to the magnanimity of the conqueror, and appeals now to the tribunal of the last resort,—the people.

The political power of the blacks is coveted, under the proposed system of suffrage, by political adventurers having no interest in common with the Southern people as a weapon of offence to be wielded for the accomplishment of their selfish schemes of personal aggrandizement; and that the race will readily surrender itself to the acts and intrigues of designing persons who flatter their vanity, and encourage them in a jealous hate of the white people of the State.

The colored delegates in the Convention moved as subserviently at the beck of their Radical managers, as ever slaves did at the command of their masters.

The amendment to the bill of rights, introduced by Kifer, that common carriers should make no distinction between citizens of the State, was designed to secure the colored people seats at table and berths with the whites on steamboats, at hotels and on the cars, and aroused such opposition that, threatening to produce serious discord in the Convention, it was withdrawn; but the colored delegates, the protesting members are informed, obliged the Radical majority to promise them that the Legislature should and would carry it into effect.

The signers of the address after further canvass criticisms of the doings of the Convention, declare that, entertaining the views they do, they owe it as a duty to the people to warn them against lending themselves to the ratification of the Constitution.

REVENUE FRAUD CASE.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 11, P. M.

In a criminal action against Rodeman & Co., for affixing a fraudulent brand to manufactured Tobacco, the Jury failed to agree.

In the same case, yesterday, in the U. S. District Court, brought as a civil suit, the jury returned a verdict forfeiting the stock of machinery, tools, implements, &c. This is the first civil suit of the kind in the country.

LIFE INSURANCE.

[From the Insurance Monitor and Wall Street Review, New York.]

A Well-deserved Success—The Equitable Life Insurance Company.

The approaching demolition of seven buildings, consisting of that almost immemorial landmark, "Old Guerin's," the less ancient "Standinger's," and the present office-building of the American Express a company, on the southeast corner of Broadway and Cedar street, together with three adjoining buildings on the latter street, is attributable to that modern insurance giant, the Equitable Life. These seven buildings are all to be replaced by one, six stories in height, including basement, and having a frontage of 86 feet 9 inches on Broadway, and one hundred and thirty-seven feet four inches on Cedar street. A number of the first architects in the country are engaged in perfecting plans for the structure, so as to make it in style, accommodation, and convenience, superior to any other building of the kind yet erected.

The building will, however, not only be made to accommodate the Company, but so arranged that the rental of such part as is not occupied by them will return an interest on the investment. The magnitude and surpassing growth of the Equitable Life not only justify this solid investment, but render it both expedient and necessary. Although this Company has been only eight years in business, its policies issued during its eighth year covered an insurance amounting to over thirty-five millions of dollars. The total sum insured by it up to the present date approaches 100,000,000; its accumulations have run up to 5,000,000; its annual income to three millions, and will in the ensuing year doubtless expand to five million dollars.

For this rapid increase and substantial success there are abundant and most satisfactory reasons. They are found in the numerous solid advantages the Company affords. In the fact that it is purely mutual, and that all its profits go to the insured on the first of February, every year, at which time a large dividend has been regularly paid, amounting last year to six hundred thousand dollars. Its mode of applying dividends so as to accommodate them to the circumstances of the policy holders, is unequalled for the variety of the advantages it offers.

The Equitable has been enabled to deal Generously with its insured in consequence of the prosperity of its business and the thriftiness of its management. The percentage of its "total cost per," compared with the cash premium receipts, was less in 1866 than that of any other Company in the policies average larger. In amount than those of any rival institution. It insures on a single life any sum from $250 to $25,000, and issues all the most desirable non-forfeiting policies. All its policies are, however, comparatively new, and it is therefore carrying but few impaired lives. Its percentage of losses, to amount at risk, which is much less than that of older Companies, establish this fact. The Equitable is, indeed, full of vitality and progressive strength, and is regarded as the most successful and—taking into consideration its age—the largest Life Insurance Company in the world.

NEW MOVEMENT IN LIFE INSURANCE.

We learn that some of the cash companies of this City have decided to adopt a uniform scale of premiums to take effect after the close of the present year, with a view to greater simplicity and uniformity in their business. These rates have been carefully deduced from American experience, and will be more accurate and satisfactory than those hitherto used, which were based upon English statistics. The Mutual, Equitable, Washington, Widows and Orphans' Standard, and one or two other companies, have entered into this desirable arrangement. We learn also that these companies have decided to establish a system by which their rejections and other points relating to medical examination and statistics, will be made known to each other and mutual benefit derived. The contribution plan of dividend has been adopted by the companies named.

There are many other points in life insurance, both theoretical and practical, upon which companies conducted upon the general principles can unite for mutual and solid advantage, and yet preserve their individual independence and peculiarities in all other respects. Such, we learn, is the leading idea governing the proposed union, which cannot fail to be attended with favorable results.

DAILY SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1867.

THINGS THAT NEVER DIE.

The pure, the bright, the beautiful,
That stirred our hearts in youth;
The impulse of a wordless prayer,
The dream of love and truth;
The longing after something lost,
The spirit's yearning cry;
The striving after better hopes,
These things shall never die.

The timid hand stretched forth to aid
A brother in his need;
That kindly word in grief's dark hour
That proves the friend indeed;
The pleading of mercy softly breathed
When justice threatens nigh;
The sorrow of a contrite heart—
These things shall never die.

The memory of a clasping hand;
The pressure of a kiss,
And all the trifles, sweet and frail,
That make up love's first bliss;
If with a firm, unchanging faith,
And holy trust and high,
Those hands have clasped, those lips have met,—
These things shall never die.

The cruel and the bitter word
That wounded as it fell;
The chilling want of sympathy
We feel, but never tell;
The hard repulse that chills the heart
Whose hopes were bounding high,—
In an unfading record kept,
These things shall never die.

Let nothing pass, for every hand
Must find some work to do;
Lose not a chance to waken love;
Be firm, and just, and true;
So shall a light that cannot fade
Beam on thee from on high,
And angel voices say to thee,
These things shall never die.

ALGERIAN JUGGLERS.

Seven Algerian jugglers and snake-charmers, who first exhibited in Paris, we believe, are now giving their disagreeable performances in London. They are Mahometans of the tribe of Aissa-Houba, and call themselves African convulsionaries. Their tricks would seem well calculated to throw nervous people in the audience into convulsions. The London Morning Post, describing their feats, says:

"A number of snakes were produced; they were about four feet long and an inch thick. These one of the performers, Kmida Ben Mustaffa, coiled round his head and allowed to bite his tongue until they hung at full length dangling from his mouth.—The next performer was Mahommed Ben Omar, who ate the bowl of a wineglass, and crushed the metal between his teeth with considerable gusto. A number of other feats equally surprising followed; and then came the grand sensation scenes. Mahommed Ben Ali Betata balanced himself on a naked sword, and subsequently tied a rope round his naked waist. This was pulled by a dozen persons so hard that the cord appeared almost to enter the man's body, but without occasioning any pain. He next seized an instrument which appeared to act like a centre-bit, and having inserted the point in the left eye, worked the handle round until the eyeball was forced three parts out of its place, presenting a most horrible appearance. The man himself did not, however, seem to suffer inconvenience, though the perspiration stood on his face, and his chest heaved as if considerable difficulty was experienced in breathing. The next feat was to puncture himself with skewers. This was effected by forcing one through the tongue, another through the lip, and a third through the cheek. To prove that the perforation was real he walked among the audience, and allowed any one sufficiently carious or sufficiently sceptical to examine the holes and to touch the skewers. Several persons expressed themselves satisfied. This experiment was attended by a very partial and insignificant hæmorrhage. A tall negro, Haradji Ben Ali, then presented himself, and, having danced frantically to the music of the tom-toms until the necessary amount of excitement was engendered in the system, proceeded to hold a lighted torch to his neck, chin and mouth, without suffering any inconvenience. He subsequently placed a lump of live charcoal in his mouth, at which lucifer matches and cigars were lighted. The charcoal was at first held in its place by the teeth, but was afterwards placed on the tongue, where it remained for several minutes. The convulsionaire who was good enough to gouge out his eyes then played with live snakes; and eventually bit off the head and tail of one, which he masticated with Eastern gravity, and threw the decapitated portion to the audience for examination. The snake was similar to one of those which had hung suspended from the tongue of Kmida Ben Mustaffa.—These and other feats equally wonderful and disgusting followed, all of which were performed with apparent ease by the Africans. The effect left upon the spectator by these extraordinary performances was the reverse of grateful."

Mr. Frank Buckland, in his paper Land and Water, attempts an explanation of some of these feats. The snakes they handle are not poisonous, but belong to a harmless species common in France and England. The man who thrusts skewers through his tongue and the back of his neck has permanent holes for their introduction and does not suffer more pain than when a lady puts on earrings after leaving them off for some time. Mr. Buckland does not, however, attempt to explain all the tricks, but says in conclusion:

"Altogether, I do not recollect having seen an exhibition which combines so many horrible and truly sensational sights in so short a space of time."

A BEAUTIFUL SIMILE.—"The looker-on was a round, red faced, sturdy yeoman, with a double chin and a voice husky with good living, good sleeping, good humor and good health. He was past the prime of life; but Father Time is not always a hard parent, and, though he tarries for none of his children, often lays his hand lightly upon those who have used him well, making them old men and women inexorably enough, but leaving their hearts and spirits young and in full vigor. With such people the grey head is but the impression of the old fellow's hand in giving them his blessing, and every wrinkle but a notch in the quiet calendar of a well spent life."—Dickens.

"Do draw up the curtain, mother," said a little child from her trundle bed, "for I want the eyes of heaven to keep watching me all the night. If I wake up I love to look at them; if I don't wake up they will still look on me."

Rock Spring Academy, Orange County N. C.

THE THIRD SESSION of this School, under the entire management of the Principal, a graduate of Wake Forest College, N. C., will commence on the 10th of January next, and close the first of June following.

Students are prepared for Wake Forest, or any other College, or for the active business of life.

Tuition, payable half in advance, from $10 to $25 per session according to course; young Ministers pay one-half. Minister's sons and disabled Confederate soldiers two-thirds the usual rates.

FIFTY DOLLARS IN ADVANCE pay for board, furnished room, fuel and washing per session, or $25 for half; otherwise $12 per month is the rate.

Students from a distance board in the family with the Principal. Facilities for boarding one's self, at moderate price.

That both moral interest and intellectual advancement may be promoted, decided discipline will be enforced, to instil moral principles as well as habits of application.

Location (8 miles Southwest of Hillsboro', on N. C. R. R., from which point conveyance is furnished on notice,) is healthful, in a neighborhood whose moral influence, intelligence, and other advantages render it desirable for a school.

Address, for further particulars or Circular, the Principal, at Rock Spring, N. C.

By virtue of a decree made in the above cause, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall offer for sale at public Auction, at the Court House door in Warrenton, on the 1st day of January next, a certain tract of Land belonging to the estate of the late Alexander S. Jones, circa 1, adjoining the lands of Wm. K Kearney J. M. Heck, Dr. Geo. Field and Mrs. Mary K. Williams, and containing about two thousand one hundred and seventy-six acres.

The tract of Land is believed to be a superior one, is situated in a healthy and very good neighborhood, and is very convenient to Market. The tract will be divided into several tracts for the convenience of purchasers, and plots and surveys will be ready on the day of sale. The sale will be made for cash, as to one-fourth of the purchase money; and on a credit of one and two years, with interest from date, as to the residue, and the purchasers will be required to give bond with approved security. No title will be made until after the payment of the whole of the purchase money, as is usual in all sales under decrees of Courts of Equity. CHAS. M. COOK, C. M. E.
